C
Sa240I
1917
cop.2

St. Olaf College Bulletin

VOL. XIII SEPTEMBER, 1917 NO. 3

PUBLISHED QUARTERLY BY THE FACULTY OF ST. OLAF COLLEGE, NORTHFIELD, MINN.

Entered Oct. 1, 1904, at Northfield, Minn., as second-class matter, under Act of Congress of July 16, 1894.

The St. Olaf College Bulletin is sent gratuitously to all who apply for it.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS LIBRARY
OCT 3 1917

ST. OLAF COLLEGE

This Bulletin summarizes some of the principal general features of St. Olaf College. The young people of the Norwegian Lutheran Church will here find a statement of some substantial reasons why they should select this institution for their college course.

St. Olaf College is our own, built and maintained by the efforts, the money, and the prayers of our own people.

It has a faculty of professors who understand the young people of our church and nationality.

It has all the departments of study that enter as essential elements into a broad and general cultural education.

It is conservative in its attitude toward the Christian religion.

It is progressive in its courses of study and methods of teaching.

It prepares young men for the pursuit of theological studies.

It encourages young men and women for the mission field.

It trains men and women for leadership in the great work of preserving and promoting high spiritual ideals in the nation.

It prepares for the study of law.

It prepares for the study of medicine.

It prepares for the pursuit of graduate courses.

It prepares teachers for our public high schools.

Graduates receive state certificates without examination.

Graduates who are high school teachers have attained a high degree of success.

It offers work in the following courses: Biology, Chemistry, Domestic Science, Education, English and Public Speaking, French, Spanish, German, Greek, Hebrew, History Economics, Latin, Mathematics, Geology, Astronomy, Music, Norwegian, Physical Education, Philosophy, Physics, Religion.

It has eight literary societies for men.

It his six literary societies for women.

It has "The St. Olaf Choir," a musical organization of very high grade.

It has "The Second Choir," which offers its advantages to those who are not sufficiently prepared for the St. Olaf Choir.

"The St. Olaf Concert Band" is an organization of fifty pieces, with full instrumentation.

"The Second Band" is maintained for the purpose of preparing members for the first band.

Other musical organizations offer opportunity for training in this line.

The college maintains a system of inter-collegiate as well as intra-collegiate contests in oratory and debating.

It has a system of athletic activities in the following sections: field and track, baseball, basketball, and lawn tennis.

It has a prohibition organization, the object of which is to promote among the students sound views on the liquor question.

The Girls' Union, composed of all the young women of the college, aims to promote the spirit of unity and general well-being among its members.

The "Manitou Messenger" is a weekly paper, published by the students.

Ample opportunities are provided for healthful recreation in various forms.

A committee of the Faculty exercises supervision over all functions of a social nature.

The Faculty regulates the amount of extra-curriculum activity in which a student may participate.

Christian life is fostered among the students.

The college provides a period of devotional exercises in the chapel each school-day.

The following organizations offer opportunity and encouragement for voluntary Christian activity among the students: Luther League, Young Men's Prayer Circle, Young Women's Christian Association, Student Volunteer Band, Volunteer Mission Study.

All these Christian organizations meet jointly every fourth Thursday evening of the month for a missionary program.

The young men in Ytterboe Hall meet for a devotional exercise at 9:30 in the evening.

The young women in Mohn Hall conduct a devotional service immediately after breakfast.

Write for catalog.

L. A. VIGNESS, President
Northfield, Minn.

3 0112 105931577

EXPENSES

All bills must be paid in advance at the beginning of each semester.

The expenses for the semester are as follows:

Board	$63.00
Tuition (college)	22.50
Tuition (school of music)	15.00
Incidentals	5.00
Student privilege fee	4.00
Gymnasium fee	2.00
Library fee	.50

Lighted and heated rooms in Ytterboe Hall can be had at $12.00, $15,00, $18.00, or $22.50 a semester.

The rooms in Mohn Hall (the women's dormitory) are $27.00 a semester.